

Companion pack

Start here.

A short map for using the Atlas app and the printed tools, without turning the first week into another project.

What Atlas is

Two halves. The app keeps the live picture: money, the kids' week, records and admin. The printed tools are for when your head needs paper and a pen.

Built for separated parents who need calmer organisation across kids, money, admin and rebuilding. Use paper when you need to slow down and think.

How the packs work

Tools are numbered 01–19 across all the packs, so Pack 03 starts at Tool 08. Cross out what doesn't apply. Nothing needs finishing.

The packs

01	The first 30 days	Tools 01–03
02	Kids & co-parenting	Tools 04–07
03	Legal & admin	Tools 08–12
04	Personal reset	Tools 13–18
05	Rebuild goals	Tool 19

Keep paper private.

The app keeps your data on this device. Paper doesn't. Keep these sheets somewhere private.

Practical organisation only. Atlas is not legal, financial, tax or mental health advice.

Use the next right tool, not every tool.

Separation isn't linear. Start with the phase you're actually in. The goal isn't completion. It's less avoidable chaos this week.

01 Survive: the first month

Print Tool 01 The first 30 days. Use Admin and Money to track what's urgent, unfinished or unclear. In the app: Admin →

02 Money unclear

Print Tool 02 Financial snapshot and Tool 03 Emergency budget. Use Money for the live numbers and your next money actions. In the app: Money →

03 Kids logistics

Print Pack 02, Tools 04–07. Use Week for the fortnight, handovers and school details. Scripts in the app has the full message library. In the app: Week, Scripts →

04 Admin and legal prep

Print Pack 03, Tools 08–12. Use Admin for documents, accounts and appointment prep. Start the dated log and shared-costs record in Records. In the app: Admin, Records →

05 Personal functioning

Print Pack 04, Tools 13–18, when routines, food, sleep, support or solo nights need steadying. Turn next actions into Goals. In the app: Goals →

06 Rebuild

Print Tool 19 Rebuild goals when life is less acute. Add the next three specific actions to Goals. In the app: Goals →

Print now.

Everything else can wait

☐ Start here

☐ Tool 02 Financial snapshot

☐ Tool 13 Weekly reset

☐ Tool 01 The first 30 days

☐ Tool 04 Handover checklist, if the kids move between homes

Print later: everything else. Most tools are only useful once the first fog lifts. Print them when you reach them.

Seven days. One small pass.

Deliberately boring. Enough structure to begin, without pretending it's all solved in a week.

☐	Day 1	Open Today and set your phase. Write the five loose ends that worry you most in Admin.
☐	Day 2	Tool 01, Today items only. Safety, your own passwords, documents.
☐	Day 3	Tool 02 Financial snapshot, 20 minutes. Then put the numbers into Money.
☐	Day 4	If the kids move between homes: set your fortnight in Week, and fill in its before and after handover lists. Print Tool 04.
☐	Day 5	Questions, not arguments. Tool 09: pick five questions for your first appointment. Start the log in Records.
☐	Day 6	Tool 13 Weekly reset. Plan one ordinary week, nothing more.
☐	Day 7	Add three next actions to Goals. Stop there.

Paper and app

Today	Your phase and what needs you now. Tool 13 Weekly reset, 15 Solo nights, 17 Support map, 18 Stability tracker.	Money	Live numbers and bills. Tool 02 Financial snapshot, 03 Emergency budget.
Week	The fortnight and handover lists. Tool 04 Handover checklist, 06 Kids' routine & rhythm, 07 Kids' info sheet.	Records	The dated log and shared costs. Tool 12 Separation timeline.
Admin	Documents, accounts, appointments. Tool 01, 08 Admin checklist, 09 Lawyer & mediator prep, 10 Accounts tracker, 11 Household admin map.	More	Scripts: Tool 05 Conversation scripts. Goals: Tool 19 Rebuild goals, your six-month direction and next three actions.

Boundary

Atlas provides practical organisation. It isn't legal, financial, tax or mental health advice. For advice about your rights, money, tax, safety, health or children, speak with a qualified professional.

Rough night? Someone will pick up.

If you're in danger, call 000.

1800RESPECT

1800 737 732

Lifeline

13 11 14

MensLine Australia

1300 78 99 78

Family Relationship
Advice Line

1800 050 321

Kids Helpline

1800 55 1800